Happy Thursday, y'all 🤠

We're closing out the summer, which means many of us are packing in our final summer vacations, getting organized for a busy season of fall activities, and battling the masses at Target for back-to-school supplies. Fiction Coffee is in the process of dropping the seasonal fall menu, and Common Desk is making exciting progress on two new locations in Houston (City Place and POST). But before we get ahead of ourselves and start sipping PSL's on an hourly basis, we're going to soak up these sweet last days of summer in the classic Common Desk way: lots of community events, creating opportunities for more people to experience magical workdays, and celebrating all kinds of wins! Read on to get the full scoop of August at CD.

Quick hitters:

- August 9th is International Coworking Day, and we're celebrating with a network-wide free day of coworking! Obviously you're a member if you've received this email, but we invite you to tell all your friends, family, and community about this opportunity to come see why you're a member. We hope to meet lots of new faces on August 9th! Keep an eye on our social media for details 👀
- We believe there's a place for the "less is more" philosophy, but Google reviews isn't one of them. Have a recent 5-star experience at one of our locations that you've been dying to tell us about? Well, we're dying to hear about it! Show the review to your Community Team after, and they'll hook you up with a complimentary drink from our counterpart, Fiction Coffee. It's a win-win if we've ever heard one.
- Somehow, it's already been 1 year of making workspace magic at CD - The Ion. Happy anni to our third Houston space!
- Common Desk is turning 10 years old in October, and we're already dreaming up the ways we're going to celebrate BIG! Time really has flown by—because it's been nothing short of a blast to get to foster game-changing communities near and far. And thus, the countdown to 10 begins!

Community Spotlight

meet this month's featured member:

Olivia Dorsey
Common Desk - East End Market
Assistant Area Coordinator, XP League

We're passing the mic to some of the members and businesses who make the Common Desk Community something of magic. Meet Olivia Dorsey of XP League, hailing from Common Desk – East End Market in Raleigh, NC!

CD: What would you say are the unique and defining characteristics of your company, professional style, or business model?
Olivia: XP League fosters a positive social environment by having our teams in person with a XP League trained coach. Our coaches are trained on cultivating healthy gaming and positive environments. Along with the positive community we are teaching them life and in-game skills while giving them an experience that makes the kids feel recognized.
